Portfolio Update

The Fund posted positive returns for the fourth quarter of 2011 and outperformed its benchmark, the MSCI All Country World Index. Overall, favorable group weightings caused the outperformance, as stock selection was negative on balance. On a sector basis, stock selections among financials and information technology companies led contributors. Health care and consumer discretionary names were the greatest drags on relative results, behind adverse stock picks. Regionally, a lack of positioning in the Japanese market was beneficial, as were stock choices in the U.K. market. Weak stock selection in the Chinese, Canadian, and U.S. markets weighed on relative returns.

Summary Fund Objective
