How risky is it?

When you invest in a fund, the value of your investment can go down as well as up. TDAM has rated this fund's risk as medium. For a description of the specific risks of this fund, see the fund's simplified prospectus.

Are there any guarantees?

Like most mutual funds, this fund is not guaranteed or insured. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

Who is this fund for?

This fund may be suitable for investors who:

- Are investing for the medium to long term.
- Are looking for capital growth.
- Can handle the ups and downs of the stock market.

This fund may not be suitable for investors who are looking for a steady source of income.

Before you invest in any fund, you should consider how it would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay and/or when you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, you must include fund distributions in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell securities of this series of the fund. The fund offers various series of securities, and the fees and expenses may be different for each series. Ask about other series that may be suitable for you.

1 Sales charges

This series is available on a "no-load" basis which means that you do not pay a sales charge when you buy this series. Your dealer may charge you a fee when you buy or sell securities of this series of the fund.

2 Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the fund's returns. As at June 30, 2012 the fund's expenses were 1.14% of its average value. This equates to $11.40 for every $1,000 invested.

	Annual rate (as a % of the fund's average value)
Management expense ratio (MER)	1.04%
This is the total of the fund's management fee and operating expenses. TDAM waived some of the fund's expenses. If it had not done so, the MER would have been higher.
Trading expense ratio (TER)	0.10%
These are the fund's trading costs.
Fund expenses	1.14%

Trailing commission

TDAM does not pay any compensation to your dealer in respect of this series of the fund.

3 Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch securities of the fund.

Other fees	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	Up to 2% of the purchase cost of the securities if you redeem them or switch them to another fund within 30 days of purchasing them. This fee goes to the fund.
Switch fee	Your dealer may charge you up to 2% of the value of securities you switch to another TD Mutual Fund.
Dealer Fee	This series is available to you if you participate in a fee-based arrangement with your dealer. Under this arrangement you pay a fee directly to your dealer.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy a mutual fund within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some provinces and territories claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
